

Export Apple Volumes.

The Board has become aware of various analyst reports circulating, containing projections of industry apple crop volumes and the consequent possible impact on supply, sales and profit results for Turners & Growers Limited.

Turners & Growers believes it is still too early in the marketing / selling cycle to confidently predict such impacts, and proposes to provide further information at its Annual Meeting on 10th June.

18th May 2005